Judge O'Rear did not show up at the last joint lecture appointment with Senator Beckham, at Princeton, Wednesday.

Thirteen thousand dollars was the sum Jess Willard received for defeating Jack Johnson at Havana, the heavyweight champion told friends.

Harry K. Thaw, after many attempts, has finally succeeded in bringing the question of his sanity before a jury. Application for a writ of habeas corpus, was granted by Supreme Court Justice Hendrick, who set the trial for May 17.

Gov.-elect Nat E. Harris, of Georgia, who it is now announced, will finally be called to pass upon the issue of life and death as regards Leo Frank, is a native of East Tennessee, and was for many years a familiar figure on Cherokee Creek, in Washington County, and at Jonesboro, the county seat.

Location of the proposed Dixie highway from Chicago to Miami, Fla., will be determined at a meeting of the Dixie highway commissioners at Chattanooga, Tenn., on May 20. This was the sense of a resolution adopted by commissioners appointed by governors of the seven states through which the highway is projected. Clark Howell, Atlanta, was elected permanent chairman of the commission, and W. W. Marr, Illinois state road commissioner, secretary.

Sir John French reports the use of gas by the Germans in an attack Thursday as follows:

"This attack was preceded by a heavy bombardment, the enemy at the same time making use of a large number of appliances for the production of asphyxiating gas. The quantity produced indicates long and deliberate preparation for the employment of devices contrary to the terms of The Hague convention, to which the enemy subscribed. The false statement by the Germans a week ago to the effect that we were using such gases is now explained. It obviously was an effort to diminish neutral criticism in advance. During the night the French retired from the gas zone, overwhelmed by the fumes. They have fallen back to the canal in the neighborhood of Boesinghe. Our front remains intact, except on the extreme left, where the troops have had to readjust their line to conform with the new French line."

Chapter on Finance.

It is not what a man earns but what he saves that makes him rich, and it is not what he owes but what he pays that keeps him poor.

Had His Suspensions.

A subscriber of an Atchison newspaper sent the following to the editor: "I don't know that Ben Hurley took it, but I know I have been missing wood and loaded several sticks with powder last Sunday night; and I know that Ben Hurley lives near me, and that early Monday morning he drove hurriedly to town and bought a new stove."

Turkey Was Called "Indian Fowl." The turkey, so far as records are known, was introduced into England in 1524, brought probably from the port of Cadiz, where ships trading with the Orient were accustomed to call. In nearly all countries, inclusive of Spain, and even Turkey itself, this bird is called the "Indian fowl."

Milton on Virtue.

I cannot praise a fugitive and cloistered virtue, unexercised and unbreathed, that never sallies out and sees her adversary, but slinks out of the race where that immortal garland is to be run for, not without dust and heat.—John Milton.

SMOKE KEEPS FRUIT SAFE

Scientific Orchardists Have Found a
Way to Prevent the Damage
From Frost.

Scientific orchardists have developed a method of spreading a blanket of smoke over their trees when frost threatens, thereby keeping them warm and saving the fruit. These men have learned that the danger time for their fruit is upon clear, still nights when the thermometer is below 40. When there are clouds there is little danger, for these hold the latent heat of the earth and prevent it from radiating into space. But when the skies are clear the heat goes hurtling away and the danger of frost impends.

So the fruit men have developed a substitute for clouds. They manufacture smoke to take their place. This is done by burning straw that is somewhat damp and therefore smokes a great deal as it burns. Great volumes of the smoke bill up and spread out upon the fields. It often happens that many men in a fruit belt may be burning these smudges at the same time and that the whole region may become covered with the smoke. So many a countryside puts on a smoke blanket that it may keep itself warm.

Yet this smoke imparts no warmth of its own to the orchards. It merely serves the purpose of preventing the radiation of the heat that has been stored up in the ground since the time that the sun last shone upon it.

NO NOVELTY

Cholly—And will you come and see us when we're married, Lulu?
Lulu—Aw! wot's de use? Dere won't be anyting ter see den. You won't be spoony at all after you're married.

PEACH PIE IN HIP POCKET.

With a charlotte russe in an inside pocket, a piece of peach pie, mashed almost beyond recognition, in his hip pocket, and with various other eatables in other pockets, Richard Campbell, aged thirty-five, was arrested, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. Policemen say they noticed Campbell going through the back yards of several East end residences. They followed him for two squares, and the police say Campbell did not miss a back door.

EAST INDIAN SOLDIERS.

In the Indian infantry regiments the rank of subadar is equivalent to that of captain, and jemadar to that of lieutenant. Havildar is sergeant, naik corporal, and sepoy private. In cavalry regiments troopers are known as sowars, the sergeant becomes duffadar, and the captain risaldar, the other designations being the same as in the infantry regiments. The only variation in these terms is in the case of the Gurkhas, in which privates are known as rifle-men instead of sepoy.

PROPERLY DISPLAYED.

"What lovely hands Mrs. Plumery has."

"Yes, she's one of our most industrious public knitters."

INTERVENTION.

May—Did you lay siege to the heart of that chap from Mexico?
Fay—Yes; but father intervened.
—Judge.

THE STRESS OF THE TIMES.

"I noticed my friend the farmer leveling his own lumber."

"I see. Cutting down his expenses with an ax."

HIS JOB.

"Binks tells me he is getting up in the world."

"Sure he is. He's running the elevator in a fifteen-story apartment."

Dread of an Operation.

N. Manchester, Ind.—Mrs. Eva Bashore, of this place, says: "I suffered female misery of every description. Two doctors attended me, and advised an operation. I lost weight until I weighed only ninety pounds. I dreaded an operation, and, instead, began to take Cardui. In a short time, I gained 25 pounds, and feel as well as I ever did. Cardui, I am sure, saved my life." Cardui is today used in thousands of homes, where it relieves pain and brings back strength and ambition. It is a woman's medicine, for woman's ailments, and you are urged to try it for your troubles. Ask your druggist. He will tell you about Cardui.—Advertisement.

HELPED WHALE OIL TRADE

Mines Have Driven the Mammals in Immense Drives into Norwegian
Waters.

The war has filled the Arctic with whales, according to the belief of some whalers, who say the mines, torpedoes and shells in the North sea have driven the mammals in schools farther north this winter. One of the large Norwegian whaling companies has just distributed a dividend of 25 per cent among shareholders on this season's catch. The whale oil refineries of Norway are sharing this prosperity.

While the whales are bringing wealth to Norway the reports of the department of agriculture is disappointing as to the amount of crops yield, which falls about $2,000,000 below the average year. Fortunately the quality of grain has been unusually good and the higher price, due to the war, is to the advantage of the farmers. The economic loss, however, will be felt by the country. Hay and potatoes were the only crops reaching their normal yield.

A TOUGH SUBJECT.

"Doppel has a sunny disposition. He seems to see the good in everybody."

"How about the footpad who held him up a few nights ago and took his watch?"

"Oh, Doppel says he's sure there was good in that fellow, too, but when Doppel tried to draw him out he got mad and said, 'Beat it!'"

Debt Liquidated.
"Well, I've settled that there note I've been owing Jack Gap for so long!" triumphantly stated a prominent citizen of the neighborhood of Rumpus Ridge. "That so?" returned another and equally prominent resident of the same locality. "Where'd you git the money?" "Aw, it didn't take no money! I just shot Gap."—Judge.

Bitter Pains.
Being without money and friends, the accused was assigned an attorney by the court. Despite his lawyer's efforts a conviction resulted. Calling the convicted man before him, the judge asked: "Have you anything to say before I pass sentence?" "Yes, your honor. It looks to me like some people around here—namely no names—are in cahoots. I'm not forgetting who inflicted that lawyer on me."

Destroying the Mosquito.
The way to destroy the mosquito in its larval stage is to pour a little kerosene on the surface of the pool or stream inhabited by the industrious wiggler. The oil shuts out the supply of oxygen from the water beneath. The wiggler rises to the surface and tries to force his breathing tube through the thin layer of oil. He fails and promptly dies from suffocation—a suitable death for so frigid an insect.
